

Reporter

The Dauphin County Medical Society electronic newsletter, Reporter, is a professional society newsletter sent four times per year. Its purpose is to serve as a source of news and information on issues of importance and interest to physicians in the Central Pennsylvania area. The Society accepts paid display advertisements and classified ads from individuals, companies, hospitals and physician search companies informing members of their job placement positions, products or services.

Advertising Policy

Advertising will be accepted in the Reporter subject to the following guidelines:

- Advertisements will be accepted for products or services thought to be of interest to Central Pennsylvania physicians and will not be accepted for products or services thought to be in direct conflict with DCMS Board of Governors endorsed or sponsored programs or activities.
- Advertising which simulates reading matter will be plainly marked “advertisement” in a typeline above or below the insertion, in accordance with postal regulations.
- Advertisements will be placed on a first-come, first-served basis as space permits.
- Cancellation will not be accepted after the closing date (see deadlines). Payment must be submitted with advertisement. Any outstanding payments must be brought up-to-date before any new advertising will be inserted.
- Initial review of proposed advertising or classified ads will be made by the newsletter editor and/or the society executive director.
- Questions or problems regarding proposed advertising should be directed to the newsletter editor and/or the executive director. Problems which cannot be resolved by the editor or the executive director will be referred to the DCMS Board of Governors whose decision will be final.
- The Dauphin County Medical Society is only responsible for providing advertising space, and is not liable for the content of advertisements appearing in the Reporter.
- The Dauphin County Medical Society reserves the right to determine the placement of all advertisements.
- A signed contract and full payment must be submitted with each application prior to publication.
- An advertiser may change the copy of the ad in any issue. The ad will be repeated as in the previous issue if the publisher has not received new copy by issue deadline specified. All advertising changes require the submission of a new advertisement.
