

DAUPHIN COUNTY

Medical society honors doctors

The Dauphin County Medical Society recognized eight area physicians for achieving 50 years of service since their graduation from medical school.

They were presented a lapel pin and plaque by Dr. Gwendolyn Poles, president of the society.

Those honored during a meeting of the Board of Governors were: William Gordon, a retired family medicine practitioner and 48-year member of the society; George Kunkel, a practicing rheumatologist in Susquehanna Twp. and 40-year member; Jesse Weigel, a retired emergency medicine physician and 48-year member; James Yates, a practicing plastic surgeon in Camp Hill and a 40-year member; Robert Greer III, a retired orthopedic surgeon and a 41-year member; Léonard Griff, a retired radiologist and a 36-year member; Francis Perna, a part-time endocrinologist and a 42-year member; and LeRoy Zeigler Jr., a retired anesthesiologist and a 43-year member.

— The Patriot-News